AccountMate 0% Leases Available for Both New and Installed Companies

PETALUMA, CA (December 18, 2008)—

AccountMate Software Company today announced a 0% leasing program to companies interested in purchasing its business accounting software system or upgrading installed AccountMate software. This program is available immediately through its Authorized Solution Providers and will close March 31, 2009.

Even though modern software technology is an obvious way to streamline processes and provide efficiencies, sometimes business owners hesitate to make the investment during slow economic periods. To offer assistance during this economic downturn AccountMate is offering 0% Leasing Programs for one, two or three year periods. If companies qualify, they can have a lease that covers software, maintenance, modifications, services, etc. and be able lease them in monthly installments with a one dollar buyout—without interest.

Many businesses look at their accounting software expenditure in terms of how much it costs per day and compare it to the money saved on inventory costs and how a new system can save time for their employees. They will usually find that investing in an AccountMate software system will more than pay for itself over the life of the lease.

AccountMate and its Solution Providers that sell and service AccountMate Software are convinced that it makes sense for businesses to take advantage of this 0% financing option. It may be one of the smartest moves a company can make now to ensure that they have capital with which to operate their business in 2009!
